

Cridge Centre for the Family
St. Saviour's
Rainbow Kitchen's
First Social Justice
Awareness Conference

Marginalization:
From the Shadow towards the Light

September 11 – 12, 2009

310 Henry Street, Victoria, British Columbia, Canada
V9A 3J2

250-384-8773

saintsaviours@shaw.ca

www.rainbowkitchen.ca

The Conference Focus:

How can we, as faith communities, more effectively reach out to and incorporate the most marginalized people in our midst via innovative liturgical practice, advocacy,
and social justice initiatives?

The Conference

Sponsor:

St. Saviour's Anglican Church – the Church of the Holy Saviour – is a worshipping community hosting and administering the Rainbow Kitchen. Via its 75 interfaith volunteers a hot and nutritious lunch is provided to approximately 110 marginalized Victoria residents five days per week

The Conference Location:

310 Henry Street, Victoria,
British Columbia, Canada
V9A 3J2

The Conference

Leadership:

Sara Miles, best-selling author of Take This Bread, and founder of the Food Pantry

The Conference Schedule
Saturday, September 12, 2009:

8:30 - 9:00 am

Gather and refreshments

9:00 - 10:00 am

Sara Miles and Paul Fromberg worship and liturgical dialogue

10:00 - 10:15 am

Refreshments

10:15 am - 11:15 am

Gregory Kerr-Wilson shares his Habitat for Humanity story and work with Indigenous People

11:15 - 11:45 am

Speaker's Panel response

11:45 am - 1:00 pm

Action lunch at the Victoria West Skateboard Park -

Linking brain trauma/marginalization

1:30 - 2:30 pm

Christopher Lind on Economic Justice and faith action

2:30 - 3:00 pm

Speaker's Panel response

3:00 - 3:30 pm

Sara Miles and Paul Fromberg

Closing Prayers

6:00 pm

Social Event: Dragon Song and Chinese Performing Arts

Registration Data:

Registration Fee:

$100.00

Payable to St. Saviour's

Include in the mailing:

Cheque, address, phone, and e-mail contact information

Mail to:

The Reverend David W.
Opheim

St. Saviour's Conference
310 Henry Street, Victoria, British Columbia, Canada
V9A 3J2

Acknowledgements:

The Rainbow Kitchen
volunteers and guests

Ensemble Laude: the Victoria Women's Medieval Choir

Dragon Song: Men's Choir

Victoria Society of Chinese Performing Arts

for marginalized folks at St.
Gregory of Nyssa, San Francisco

Paul Fromberg, Rector of St.
Gregory of Nyssa, San Francisco, avant-garde liturgist, and artist

Dr. Christopher Lind, Economic Justice expert, author, and Fellow of Massey College, University of Toronto

Gregory Kerr-Wilson, Bishop of the Diocese of Qu'Appelle, responsible for a diocesan Habitat for Humanity initiative in Regina, and actively engaged in discourse with Indigenous Peoples

The Conference Schedule

Friday, September 11, 2009:

8:30 - 9:00 am
Gather and refreshments
9:00 - 10:00 am
Sara Miles and Paul
Fromberg lead a 'welcoming of the stranger' liturgy
10:00 - 10:15 am
Rainbow Kitchen guests join the conference - refreshments

10:15 - 11:45 am
Panel discussion with speakers and local activists
12:00 - 1:30 pm
Rainbow Kitchen lunch
1:30 - 3:00 pm
Sara Miles and Paul Fromberg
contextualize marginalization and its relationship to liturgy
3:00 - 3:15 pm
Refreshment break
3:15 - 4:00 pm
Sara Miles and Paul Fromberg lead an impromptu Eucharistic liturgy
7:00 - 9:00 pm
'Ensemble Laude' Rainbow Kitchen Benefit Concert and Sara Miles book signing